

FULL ITINERARY

OKAVANGO FOOT SAFARI - BOTSWANA
MOREMI GAME RESERVE, OKAVANGO DELTA
6 nights / 7 days

START POINT: Johannesburg, SA END POINT: Maun, Botswana

The timeless land of the Okavango Delta in northern Botswana is set deep within the Kalahari Desert. Proclaimed as a World Heritage Site, the Okavango is the largest inland delta in the world, and one of the most pristine wilderness areas on the planet. A vast tapestry of waterways, lagoons, floodplains and islands support an astonishing array of game. Our foot safari is a classic walking adventure incorporating a permanent base camp and a mobile fly-camp. Track elephant, lion, buffalo, wild dog and numerous antelope ... a stirring experience!

DAY 1:

International flight from Johannesburg to Maun followed by an air charter to Oddballs Enclave Camp. It's a charming reed and tent base camp, ideally suited for adventurous travellers ... comfortable en-suite tented accommodation, a delightful setting, great food, and above all else, a connection with the spirit of the Okavango!

DAYS 2:5

Pole out of camp with all provisions and set up a remote fly-camp on a secluded island in the Moremi. The two-man rip-stop dome tents with sewn-in groundsheets include a bedroll and sleeping bag. The essence is on mobility and traveling light, which goes some way in reaping a rewarding and significant wilderness encounter. All meals are prepared on an open fire, and water is drawn from the delta

With absolute flexibility, we explore the region and surrounding smaller islands on foot or by dugout. Chief's Island supports a rich diversity of game. Elephant are normally encountered, and some close up contacts are predicted! Buffalo, giraffe, zebra, antelope as well as predators such as lion and wild dog are often sight

Tracking animals on foot is extremely exciting, and is highly recommended - we often encounter lion and elephant on the walks. This is the essence of a mobile trail - we are absolutely flexible according to the requirements of the party.

DAY 6:

Pole to Delta Camp, a secluded reed and thatch camp and enjoy the charming facilities.

DAY 7:

Air charter back to Maun to connect with ongoing travel plans.
